

Better Sex Talk Photoshoot

Hosted by BARS Brockport Against Rape Sexual Assault

& POS Prevention and Outreach Services

Sunday April 10th 12:00-4:00 pm Union Gallery

B.A.R.S. Brockport Against Rape and Sexual Assault will be collaborating with The Better Sex Talk Campaign a photographic campaign established by a group of NYU students to fill in the gaps of Sex Ed. Brockport students will have the chance to express what they have to say about sexual education and share what they wish they would have been taught.

Each student will answer the question:

"If you could give one piece of advice to your younger sibling about sex what would you say?"

The aim of the project is to strive for improvements in sexual education, raise awareness for sexual assault and create a culture of consent. The Better Sex Talk campaign sheds light on critical information that is absent in sexual education courses, empowering college students from different backgrounds to use their own experiences to fill in those gaps.

The first 50 students to sign up for a five minute time slot will have their picture taken, have their quote superimposed on their photo and their advice will become part of this important collegiate movement. Brockport will be the first SUNY School to join the Better Sex Talk coalition. Other colleges and universities that are involved include NYU, Harvard, Yale, Duke, Stanford, Mount Holyoke College and Gettysburg College.

For more information about the campaign visit their Facebook page here: <https://www.facebook.com/bettersextalk/?fref=ts>
